 How to support Mary Always be aware that due to the number of interventions (as detailed in the care plans around skin integrity) there is a real danger Mary may miss out on the fun things that are going on – be mindful of this and ensure Mary is involved as far as is possible or that she wants to be. Know that Mary's head leans back and so she only drinks from a feeder cup or with a straw – see care plan for detail. Mary will swear – never be offended it is not vulgar and isn't intended with any malice. Mary needs a supporter who will have banter and fun with her – who can pick out words Mary says to keep the conversation alive. You need to know Mary well to understand her – she will often not mean what she says – she may be unhappy with you and tell you straight, but learn from her family and the staff who know her best. Mary's chocolate is in the small cupboard in her room, ensure she is offered some each day!
